Section C

(25 marks)

Questions 26 – 31 are based on the following passage.

- 1 Every year, whenever the month of May makes its debut, sons and daughters all around the world would be thinking of what they could do this year for Mother's Day. The media, cake houses and shopping centres take part actively reminding us of this special day. The question that we probably do not ask is how did it come about? 5
- 2 The earliest Mother's Day celebrations were dated way back to the 1600's in England. All servants would be given a day off every 'Mothering Sunday' and encouraged to return home and spend the day with their mothers. A special cake, called the Mothering Cake, was often taken along.
- 3 In the United States, Mother's Day was originally suggested by Julia Ward Howe back in 1872 as a way of honouring all mothers. Her dream of setting aside a special day to honour mothers finally became a reality in 1907 through Anna Jarvis, who is considered the founder of Mother's Day. 10
- 4 It was Jarvis who initiated the custom of giving mothers carnations. White carnations were for mothers who had passed away, while pink carnations were given to mothers who were still living. Finally, in May 1914, President Woodrow Wilson made Mother's Day a national holiday. He also started the Mother's Day tradition of displaying the United States flag to represent the public's expression of love for all mothers of the United States of America. 15 20
- 5 As widely known, Mother's Day is celebrated on the second Sunday of May. It is a day when mothers are showered with 30 tokens of appreciation from their families. Some mothers are given gifts such as flowers, sweets, meals and cards.
- 6 In France, Mother's Day is celebrated on the last Sunday in May. It is a family holiday in France. The family gathers to eat a large meal and at the end of the celebration, all the mothers in the family receive a special cake that looks like a bouquet of flowers. In Spain, Mother's Day is celebrated on December 8th and it is looked upon as a religious holiday. 25
- 7 In this day and age, Mother's Day can prove to be rather daunting for some as we either run out of ideas on how to treat our mothers or are simply not sure of how to show our love and appreciation. Here are some tips on how to celebrate the day itself. One of the best ways is simply to give your Mum the day off. Let her take it easy and relax while the rest of the family does the work. You will be amazed at the amount of work your mother has to do! You could also prepare your mother's favourite 30 breakfast. Make sure the food is arranged nicely on a tray and don't forget to include some fresh flowers, preferably her favourite kind. Do remember to include a present, too!

- 8 Another suggestion is to take your Mum to dinner at her favourite restaurant. Whatever you have in mind, let her know that her wisdom love and sacrifices are greatly appreciated. We are always taking things for granted and if it wasn't for our Mums, we would not be here today. 40

Are you still playing your flute?
 In the village so quiet and deserted
 Amidst the sick rice field
 While here it has become a luxury
 To spend time watching the rain
 Gazing at the evening rays
 Collecting dew drops

Are you still playing your flute?
 The more it disturbs my conscience
 To be thinking of you
 In the hazard of you

 My people disunited by politics
 My friend slaughtered mercilessly
 This world is too old and bleeding
