Itinerary

- 06.30 am Depart to Perlis.
- WANG KELIAN VIEW POINT - At 304 meters above sea level, Wang Kelian View Point is one of Perlis' most well-known sights, situated along the northern part of the Thailand-Malaysia border.
- GUA KELAM (KELAM CAVE)- A 370-metre-long limestone cave known for its 'cave walk,' Gua Kelam is one of Malaysia's most unique and adventurous caves. Commonly known as the "cave of darkness", it is popular among cavern explorers. You will enter the cave from one end and exit from another location. The only way in is to across a wooden suspension bridge with an 8ft-wide walkaway.
- TASIK TIMAH TASOH (TIMAH TASOH LAKE)-Timah Tasoh Lake is an artificial lake built in 1992, for supplying drinking water and protecting the region from floods. The lake gets its name from the two rivers flowing through it, the Timah River and the Tasoh River. This lake also serves as a sanctuary for migrating birds passing through the northern hemisphere. Its mountainous background and vast lake landscape is akin to the view of the Guilin of China,
- PADANG BESAR-One of the biggest tourist attractions is a shopping paradise in Padang Besar (directly translated as Big Field), which is a popular shopping destination for visitors in Perlis, which is situated close to the Malaysia-Thailand border.
