FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

1. Can a remanufactured toner cartridge damage a printer?
DBS toner cartridges have been properly remanufactured that should not damage any kind of your printer.

2. Will I get the same number of printed pages from a remanufactured toner cartridge as a new cartridge?
You should get same or more pages from DBS cartridges than from an original manufacturer's cartridge. Simply because we put the same or more grams of toner in our remanufactured cartridges.

3. How much does a remanufactured cartridge cost?
On the average, DBS remanufactured toner cartridges for HP & Samsung printers are 50% to 60% cheaper than usual selling prices.
